

Find the Perfect Gift

With holiday festivities quickly approaching, time is running out to find those perfect gifts for loved ones. Still searching? The 38th annual 4X4 Exhibit & Sale is returning to campus Tuesday, Dec. 3, in the Cabre Building's Northwest Gallery. The perennially-popular sale gives all art aficionados the opportunity to buy holiday gifts and other artwork at a reasonable cost. In keeping with tradition, the doors to the gallery will remain locked until exactly 7 p.m. when crowds rush to get first chance at the diminutive art created by Northwest College faculty, staff and students. Prices for all pieces are set at either $8, $12, or $16 each. Read more about this year's exhibit.

Stocking Stuffers

Are you looking for that perfect stocking stuffer? Look no further! Phi Theta Kappa will be selling Northwest College themed coloring books. Some of the pages are of our college majors, from rodeo to photography to nursing!

For just $5 you could have one of your own! Contact Bossan Abdyeva at Bossan.Abdyeva@nwc.edu for more information.

Submit an Alumni Profile

One of the best ways for students to hear about what life is like studying and living at Northwest is through our Alumni; the people who have been here and lived it.

As well as this, we are keen to promote the achievements of our alumni and the diverse range of career paths they have taken, to demonstrate the wealth of opportunities studying at Northwest College offers.

If you would like to submit an Alumni career profile, you can do so by contacting us through email at tawnya.peterson@nwc.edu.

Please note: Not all profiles submitted may be used.
