Spirit to Learn

In this month's #WeAreNWC student feature, learn how determination and an adventurous spirit allowed Randy Quarles to find his calling and discover a second home in the Northwest College Photographic Communications Department.

He's set to graduate in May 2019 and plans to embark on a journey where can put his photography skills—among many others—to the test.

Considering going back to school? Apply now for the Trapper Adult Learner scholarship. Available to both full-time and part-time students ages 24+ (minimum 6 credit hours). Learn more today!

May your Holidays be Merry & Bright

Remember winter at NWC – the snow, a lighted star on top of the Carillon, the magical feeling of the holidays? Students, staff and community alike come together in a special way this time of year to nurture a sense that we are all family.

During this Season of Giving, the Northwest College Foundation has a gift for you. We hope the images of Northwest College within this 2019 calendar will help you reflect on the magic which continually happens for students... At the Heart of Northwest.
